RAJYA SABHA

I

The following Bills were introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 22nd August, 1968:—

BILL No. XXIII of 1968

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 1968. Short title
2. In article 351 of the Constitution,— Amend-ment of article 351.
 - (i) after the words “the Hindi language” the words “as a link language” shall be inserted;
 - (ii) for the words “medium of expression” the words “medium of communication between the States and” shall be substituted; and
 - (iii) the words “and by drawing, wherever necessary or desirable, for its vocabulary, primarily on Sanskrit and secondarily on other languages” shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Now that the place of Hindi as the official language of the Indian Union has been firmly recognized, it is desirable that a clear perspective about its nature, form and content is formulated so that the people may adopt it with understanding and ease.

Hindi, the official language, is to be a link language. It shall not replace the regional languages in so far as the medium of instruction in the States is concerned. It shall only be a medium of communication between the Centre and the States, and between one State and the other and a medium of intercourse between the people of different States. Therefore Hindi as a link language shall have to be understood and developed distinct from Hindi as a regional language.

Further, if Hindi as the official language has to grow into a medium of communication or intercourse it must be a simple and commonly understood language. It can be so, provided it grows by enriching itself with words and expressions from all the Indian languages mentioned in the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution and gives up its leaning towards Sanskrit.

Hence this Bill.

S. K. VAISHAMPAYEN.

BILL No. XXI OF 1968

A Bill further to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Code of Criminal Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1968.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Amendment of section 418.

2. In section 418 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), in sub-section (2), after the word "death" the words "or imprisonment for life" shall be inserted.

3. In sub-section (1) of section 421 of the principal Act, in the proviso, after the word and figures "section 419" the words and figures "or section 420" shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 421.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Certain lacunae have been found in sections 418 and 421 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, regarding the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. The present amending Bill seeks to remove the lacunae.

M. P. BHARGAVA.

IV

BILL No. XXII OF 1968

A Bill further to amend the Constitution of India.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Nineteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Constitution (Amendment) Act, 1968. short title.

2. In article 326 of the Constitution, for the words "twenty-one years" the words "eighteen years" shall be substituted. Amendment of article 326.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

According to the Constitution of India any citizen of India who is twenty-one years of age or above and is included in the electoral roll is eligible to vote in an election either to the House of the People or to the Legislative Assembly of a State. There is a demand that this age of eligibility should be reduced to eighteen years. Under the law, a person becomes an adult when he is eighteen years of age. Though we have accepted adult franchise in the Constitution, persons below the age of twenty-one are not allowed to vote and thereby participate in the functioning of the democratic institutions of the country. It is not proper to debar millions of youngmen and women of our country from exercising their right of franchise by keeping the age-limit at a higher level.

Hence this Bill.
